

Join online - Pay by Credit card (for other options see below)

Please read this document before clicking here: JOIN ON LINE

Please take care filling in your details: the form is case-sensitive. Double-check that you have used upper and lower-case correctly especially for your email address.

It's important that you provide the details of a spouse, partner, relation or friend who can be contacted in an emergency in the event that you are unable to communicate. There is a place for name and contact details on the application form.

The Chinnor u3a payment page is hosted by PayPal, but this does not mean you need a PayPal account - you can pay using a debit or credit card by choosing to "Check out as a Guest". You will find this option at the bottom of the page.

PayPal will not open a PayPal account for you when you use your credit or debit card. However, they will retain the information you provide in accordance with their Privacy Policy which enables them to monitor the use of PayPal for risk management purposes only.

After joining you will receive a confirmation from the Chinnor u3a PayPal account that your payment has been processed successfully. You will also receive an email from Chinnor u3a with your membership card attached.

You may be asked to show it at meetings – you can either show the card on your smartphone or print a copy. If this email does not come within a few minutes, let us know.

If you would prefer to join by post or pay by cheque please click here read the instructions and to download an application form. Download application form
